

COURT LECTURES RICH MAN'S SON

Magistrate Crane Forces Young Broker's Clerk Out of Work to Induce Father to Support the Former's Family.

Magistrate Crane, in the Yorkville
Court, to-day lectured Edward Tietz, a well-dressed young man, with a rich
father, for neglecting his wife and their three children, and then held Tietz in $500 bail.

The couple live at No. 246 East Seventy-fourth street. Tietz, who has been married eight years. Up to twenty-three months ago Tietz was employed as a broker's office. Since then he has done nothing.

"Judge," said the woman, while tears
rolled down her cheeks, "I have been served with a dispossession notice to leave
by the 23d. My husband has not provided for me and the children. We have been twenty-three months. We have been many and many a day with nothing to eat, and our meal last Sunday consisted of coffee and dry bread."

"I am sorry," began Tietz, "for this condition of affairs, but what am I to do? I am out of work."

"What do you work at?" inquired the Court.

"I have been in a brokerage office, but for the past twenty-three months I have been unable to get anything to do,"
said Tietz.

"It is the duty of the father to support his family," declared the Magistrate. "A father's heart and soul should be bound up in his children. Something
I want to live for is the love and affection of my children. Do you love your children?"

"I certainly do," replied Tietz.

"You have a poor way of showing it,"
began Magistrate Crane. "I would work
at anything to provide for my family.
All I can do is to look you up."

"I don't want to be looked up," broke
in Tietz.

"You say you have a rich father?"

"Yes."

"Then your father will have to support your children. Is he in court?"

"No, but I can have him in court this afternoon."

"Then I will adjourn this case until then. In the mean time I shall keep you here and hold you in $500 bail."

AMBULANCE MAN
HEIR TO $30,000.

Driver for Brooklyn Hospital Will Get That Sum on Twenty-first
Birthday, April 2.

Friends of Frank Farrell, until to-day
an ambulance driver of the Bradford
Street Hospital, Brooklyn, are congratulating him over the fact that when he reaches his twenty-first birthday,
on April 2, he will inherit $30,000.

The money is from his grandmother's estate. Farrell gave up his position
yesterday, and from now on until he receives his money he will be a free man.

He is going into the general trucking business, and also is going to be a contractor.

CIGARETTE FIEND STABBED YOUTH

Young Hassett Refuses an Unknown's Request for a Smoke and Is Attacked with Knife—
Will Probably Die.

James Hassett, a youth of twenty, is dying in Roosevelt Hospital from a stab wound inflicted by a boy who is believed by the police to be a cigarette fiend.

Young Hassett, who bears an excellent reputation, and who lives with his parents at No. 47 West Thirty-first street, was exercising his dog in Tench avenue last night. The animal was racing after him when, at the corner of Thirty-fourth street, he stopped, lighted a cigarette, and poked the dog
up in his arms, started off toward home.

Just then a boy of seventeen or eighteen,
who had the appearance of an Italian, approached. He seemed morose and nervous.

"Give me a cigarette," he said to Hassett.

"I haven't another," replied Hassett.
"Well, give me that one you are smoking," demanded the stranger.

"Not so, you can notice it," answered
Hassett.

He started to walk away, when the boy seized him by the coat. "I get you," said the boy.

"What do you work at?" inquired the Court.

"I have been in a brokerage office, but
for the past twenty-three months I have been unable to get anything to do,"
said Tietz.

"It is the duty of the father to support his family," declared the Magistrate. "A father's heart and soul should
be bound up in his children. Something
I want to live for is the love and affection of my children. Do you love your
children?"

"I certainly do," replied Tietz.

"You have a poor way of showing it,"
began Magistrate Crane. "I would work
at anything to provide for my family.
All I can do is to look you up."

"I don't want to be looked up," broke
in Tietz.

"You say you have a rich father?"

"Yes."

"Then your father will have to support your children. Is he in court?"

"No, but I can have him in court this
afternoon."

"Then I will adjourn this case until then. In the mean time I shall keep you here and hold you in $500 bail."

AMBULANCE MAN
HEIR TO $30,000.

Driver for Brooklyn Hospital Will Get That Sum on Twenty-first
Birthday, April 2.

Friends of Frank Farrell, until to-day
an ambulance driver of the Bradford
Street Hospital, Brooklyn, are congratulating him over the fact that when
he reaches his twenty-first birthday,
on April 2, he will inherit $30,000.

The money is from his grandmother's
estate. Farrell gave up his position
yesterday, and from now on until he
receives his money he will be a free
man.

He is going into the general trucking business, and also is going to be a contractor.

POLICE SHOT LAMPLIGHTER.

Man Is Said to Have Been Caught Stealing Clothes from Lines.

Michael De Onofrio, an Orange, N. J. lumpighter, is in the Orange Memorial Hospital to-day with a bullet in his back and there is a possibility that he will die. He was shot last night by Policeman Thomas Almond, of Orange, after being arrested on the charge of stealing clothes from lines of laundries and private houses.

The police say that in a bundle which De Onofrio had tied to his lamp-lighting stick they found freshly laundered clothes, and when they were taking him to the station-house he suddenly turned upon Almond, struck him down and started to run. Almond drew his revolver and shot De Onofrio.

Before Hassett could escape the thrust, the strange boy had buried the blade of the dirk in Hassett's stomach and turned the handle.

With a scream the wounded youth staggered to a doorway and fell unconscious. A citizen who had witnessed the assault notified the police. The Rev. Father Gleason, of St. Michael's church, happened along and seeing that Hassett was probably dying he administered extreme unction.

Hassett was then hurried to the hospital. There it was found that there was little or no chance for his recovery.
He was able to give a description of his assailant, and Detectives Boyle and Tunney were assigned to run down the stabbing cigarette smoker.

Magistrate Crane, in the Yorkville
Court, to-day lectured Edward Tietz, a
well-dressed young man, with a rich
father, for neglecting his wife and their
three children, and then held Tietz in $500 bail.

The couple live at No. 246 East Seventy-fourth street. Tietz, who has been married eight years. Up to twenty-
three months ago Tietz was employed as a broker's office. Since then he has done nothing.

"Judge," said the woman, while tears
rolled down her cheeks, "I have been
served with a dispossession notice to leave
by the 23d. My husband has not provided for me and the children. We have been twenty-three months. We have been many and many a day with nothing to eat, and our meal last Sunday consist-
ed of coffee and dry bread."

"I am sorry," began Tietz, "for this
condition of affairs, but what am I to
do? I am out of work."

"What do you work at?" inquired the Court.

"I have been in a brokerage office, but
for the past twenty-three months I have been unable to get anything to do,"
said Tietz.

"It is the duty of the father to support his family," declared the Magistrate. "A father's heart and soul should
be bound up in his children. Something
I want to live for is the love and affection of my children. Do you love your
children?"

"I certainly do," replied Tietz.

"You have a poor way of showing it,"
began Magistrate Crane. "I would work
at anything to provide for my family.
All I can do is to look you up."

"I don't want to be looked up," broke
in Tietz.

"You say you have a rich father?"

"Yes."

"Then your father will have to support your children. Is he in court?"

"No, but I can have him in court this
afternoon."

"Then I will adjourn this case until then. In the mean time I shall keep you here and hold you in $500 bail."

AMBULANCE MAN
HEIR TO $30,000.

Driver for Brooklyn Hospital Will Get That Sum on Twenty-first
Birthday, April 2.

Friends of Frank Farrell, until to-day
an ambulance driver of the Bradford
Street Hospital, Brooklyn, are congratulating him over the fact that when
he reaches his twenty-first birthday,
on April 2, he will inherit $30,000.

The money is from his grandmother's
estate. Farrell gave up his position
yesterday, and from now on until he
receives his money he will be a free
man.

He is going into the general trucking business, and also is going to be a contractor.

Magistrate Crane, in the Yorkville
Court, to-day lectured Edward Tietz, a
well-dressed young man, with a rich
father, for neglecting his wife and their
three children, and then held Tietz in $500 bail.

The couple live at No. 246 East Seventy-fourth street. Tietz, who has been married eight years. Up to twenty-
three months ago Tietz was employed as a broker's office. Since then he has done nothing.

"Judge," said the woman, while tears
rolled down her cheeks, "I have been
served with a dispossession notice to leave
by the 23d. My husband has not provided for me and the children. We have been twenty-three months. We have been many and many a day with nothing to eat, and our meal last Sunday consist-
ed of coffee and dry bread."

"I am sorry," began Tietz, "for this
condition of affairs, but what am I to
do? I am out of work."

"What do you work at?" inquired the Court.

"I have been in a brokerage office, but
for the past twenty-three months I have been unable to get anything to do,"
said Tietz.

"It is the duty of the father to support his family," declared the Magistrate. "A father's heart and soul should
be bound up in his children. Something
I want to live for is the love and affection of my children. Do you love your
children?"

"I certainly do," replied Tietz.

"You have a poor way of showing it,"
began Magistrate Crane. "I would work
at anything to provide for my family.
All I can do is to look you up."

"I don't want to be looked up," broke
in Tietz.

"You say you have a rich father?"

"Yes."

"Then your father will have to support your children. Is he in court?"

"No, but I can have him in court this afternoon."

HECHT BROS.

259-261
Sixth Ave.,
Between
16th & 17th Sts.

OPEN UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK SATURDAY NIGHT.

The Man Paying in Small Amounts
Can Be Dressed in the Best Style.

A man's clothes are entirely independent of his means. One with a moderate salary or income has at his command suits and overcoats in the very best models, of the choicest fabrics and of the most expert workmanship, for we've a gathering of men's tailored apparel that can't be surpassed in style, and is the peer in fit of anything the best merchant tailors can produce. Yet these clothes are half the prices charged by merchant tailors that can make no better, and we accept in payment very small sums, weekly or monthly.

MEN'S SUITS—A Multitude of Styles at $15.

New model Sack Suits for men, with either single or double breasted coats, in the new season's richest black unfinished worsteds and fancy fabrics; broad, perfectly balanced, graceful shoulders and hand-made collars; the equal in style of anything a merchant tailor can make at any price, and in quality and tailoring as good as anything made to your measure at $25, for..... $15

Spring Overcoats—Every Style.

Superbly tailored light and medium weight Top Coats, of Tan Coverts, in various shades and rich Oxford fabrics, all lengths, in the newest shapes, beautifully trimmed, with sizes to fit men of all proportions; a merchant tailor who could plan a coat as good as these wouldn't make you one for $25; yet..... $15

Suits Especially for Young Men.

Suits cut over patterns designed especially for the athletic figures of young men from 15 to 20,
of the newest worsteds and fancy cheviots; new model double-breasted coats, with broad, graceful shoulders, perfect fitting, because these suits are made by specialists who have studied every demand of the young man of fashion; superb values..... $12.50

Paddock Overcoats.

If your taste runs to something out of the ordinary and you want a Paddock Overcoat in perfection; we have them of the choicest fabrics, the most perfect fitting garment we've ever seen..... $25 to $35

Stern Brothers

To-morrow, A Special offering of
Women's Hosiery

Fast Black Cotton Hosiery, with unbleached double seam, and Plain or Ribbed Lisle Thread Hosiery, double seam. Value 60c pair 25c

Fast Black Lisle Thread Hosiery, with colored embroidered insets, in plain gauge or with lace ankles. Value 80c pair 29c

Fast Black Lisle Thread Hosiery, in gauge, silk lisse finish, open-work insets and lace ankles embroidered. Value 65c pair 38c

Pure Thread Black Silk Hosiery, side stitched, embroidered insets, or lace ankles, reinforced heels and toes. Formerly $1.95 pair. $1.69

Boys', Girls' & Infants' Shoes

Complete assortments of SHOES, OXFORD TIES and SLIPPERS, FOR EARLY SPRING and SUMMER WEAR, in White Canvas, Patent and all durable Leathers, made on lasts specially adapted for growing feet.

Misses' & Girls' Apparel
for Spring, Greatly Below Value

MISSES' DRESSES, of White Net and Point d'Esprit, 14 and 16 yrs. Value $16.00 and 20.00 $12.95, 15.50

MISSES' SUITS, ETON BLOUSE, of Black, Blue and Brown Panama Cloth and Cheviots, 14 and 16 yrs. Value $27.50 $19.75

MISSES' COVERT CLOTH JACKETS,
Taffeta Lined, New Model. Value $13.50 $9.95

MISSES' WALKING SKIRTS, of Panama Cloth and Cheviots, black, blue, brown and shepherd checks, New Model. Value $7.50 $4.95

GIRLS' BOX REEFERS of Covert and Plain Cheviots, 4 to 14 yrs. Special at $4.95, 5.45, 7.95

GIRLS' WOOL RUSSIAN DRESSES of fancy mixtures, braid trimmed and embroidered emblem, 4 to 14 yrs. Value $7.00 $3.95

Special Values in Boys' & Young Men's Clothing

NORFOLK SUITS, EXTRA KNICKERBOCKER TROUSERS
of homespun and fancy cheviots. Value $5.95 $5.00

SAILOR COLLAR RUSSIAN & SAILOR SUITS, serges and worsteds, a great variety. Value $8.95 to 11.75 $5.00 to 9.75

TOP COATS and REEFERS of serges, cheviots, worsteds and coverts. Value $1.00 $6.95 to 14.75

KNEE TROUSERS of Blue and Fancy Cheviots and Coverts. Value $1.00 59c

YOUNG MEN'S SUITS, with EXTRA TROUSERS, blue serges, blue and fancy cheviots, 15 to 20 yrs. Value $15.95 $13.90

SPRING TOP COATS and RAINCOATS, of cravenettes, coverts and cheviots. Value $16.50 $12.90

EXCLUSIVE STYLES OF BOYS' FELT AND CLOTH HATS, also in IMPORTATION OF STRAW SAILOR and MIDDY HATS.
Very Reasonably Priced.

West Twenty-third Street

H.O'Neill & Co

Saturday, March 25.
We Offer New Models in Girls' Outerwear.

The undernoted will be found excellent values and particularly interesting just now.

MISSES' SUITS—of strictly all wool serge, surprise blouse handsomely trimmed, round length skirts plaited, black, blue, browns, sizes 14, 16, 18. Special for Saturday, $17.50

MISSES' LINEN REGULATION SUITS—sizes 14, 16, 18, $3.50, 4.50, 8.50

MISSES' COVERT JACKETS—short and long models, 4 to 14 years,
$5.00, 7.75, 8.75, 10.00

GIRLS' REEFERS and SEVEN-EIGHTH LENGTH COATS, 4.75, 6.75, 7.50

CHILDREN'S MOHAIR DRESSES—full blouse and plaited skirts, linen collars and ties, all colors; sizes 4 to 14 years,
Special for Saturday, 4.50

Boys' Clothing
For Saturday, March 25
Some of the Best Values We Have Ever Offered

Double-Breasted Suits, with Extra Trousers, that sell generally at $9.98..... 4.50

These Suits, with extra pair of Trousers, are made of the finest of all-wool materials (worsted and cheviots), plain and mixed designs—sizes 7 to 16 years—special price Saturday..... 4.50

Boys' 3.98 Suits Special at 2.95

These Suits are cut in Norfolk, Sailor, Eton, Russian and Double-Breasted Styles, made of blue and brown serges and fancy mixed cheviots—the assortment admits of a fine selection in all sizes, 3 to 16 years—special price Saturday..... 2.95

Boys' 50c. Knee Trousers, 39c.

Made with taped seams and patent waist band. In plain blue and mixed cheviots and drab corduroy—special price Saturday..... 39c

Women's Round-Length Skirts and Waists.

WOMEN'S PANAMA OR BROADCLOTH SKIRTS, closely plaited, perfectly tailored—Saturday..... 8.75

WOMEN'S PLAITED SKIRTS,
checks, fine unfinished worsteds and gray mixtures—
Saturday..... 4.50

Also a number of
Very Fine Silk Waists
Crepes, Chiffon Taffeta, Me silmer, etc.—pretty models and particularly fine tailoring—all colors—Saturday..... 5.00
Heretofore 7.00 to 9.00

Saturday, March 25,
$1.00 Alarm Clocks at 50c.

500 "H. O'Neill" Alarm Clocks, worth $2.00 each—a clock that will awaken the deepest sleeper; is warranted to keep accurate time and give satisfaction—to-morrow at.... 50c.

$1.50 Razor and Strop, $1.00

We offer a good Razor (guaranteed as such), extra hollow ground and honed, ready for use—also a Barber's Shaving Strop, heavy leather, with canvas back—to-morrow at..... 1.00

"Edwin C. Burt" Shoes
Showing of the Spring Styles in Shoes and Oxfords

(Second Floor.)
There are several new shades of tan and champagne in both Russia Calf and Vici Kid.

Blucher Cut Oxfords and Gibson Ties in all shapes of toes from the narrow pointed to the wide mannish effect.

The showing this season is so large and varied that we believe every taste can be suited in these justly-celebrated Shoes—$5.50 per pair.

Special for Saturday
Misses' Black Vici Kid Shoes

Spring heel, buttoned, patent leather tips—sizes 1 1/4 to 2, C. D. 2 widths—regular price $2.00, Saturday..... $1.29

29c. Ribbons at 17c. Yard.

Fine quality Satin and Taffeta Ribbons, 4 1/2 inches wide—in all the new fancy shades as well as staple colors—suitable for Dress and Millinery trimming. Regular price 29c.
Special for Saturday..... 17c. Yard.

Men's Furnishings.
Three Extra Specials for Saturday.

Pajamas.
Trade of fine madras
cloth, neat patterns, pearl buttons and frogs—made to sell at $1.50 to $1.75; special 1.10

Neckwear.
New Spring Shades, made up in French Four-in-hands, 2 1/2 and 3 inches wide—value 45c to 75c each; special at..... 42c

Night Shirts.
Muslin and cambric, with collar and surplus necks—
value 50c. to 65c; special at..... 40c

Rubber Goods
At Very Special Prices.
Rubber Gloves.
The brands that we have sold regularly at 75c. and 85c.
$1.00 pair; special at..... 39c

Rubber Sponges.
With straps, the styles that we have sold regularly at..... 25c
49c. and 73c; special at..... 19c

Rubber Sponges.
Size 1, regular price 25c;
sale price..... 19c
Sizes 2 and 3, regular price 35c
49c. and 69c; sale price..... 35c

Get a Shoemaker's Fit. Frazin & Oppenheim Get a Shoemaker's Fit.

The Standard of Real Shoe Excellence

$3 Footwear for $3

Men and Women

Smartly shaped Shoes that stay smart is the shoe problem answered in Frazin's $3.00 footwear.
It's the way they're made—the leather we put